Cello Solo

Detailed description: This musical score page contains two systems. The first system features four vocal staves: T1 and T2 in the upper voice range, and B1 and B2 in the lower voice range. The vocal lines are written in treble and bass clefs. A measure of music is shown with a 'sus.' (sustained) marking under a note. The second system features a piano accompaniment (Pno.) with two staves. The right hand (treble clef) plays a sustained chord, indicated by a 'C' (C major) and a long horizontal line. The left hand (bass clef) plays a 'Cello Solo' consisting of a series of eighth notes. The piano part concludes with a final chord in both hands.
